This newsletter has been drawn up in two identical copies, one for each of the parties hereto.

[1] In case a certain deposit is unavailable due to the bank's being unable to meet its financial obligations, the Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund will pay the deposits to their depositors. The maximum amount to be refunded is BGN 196 000 per depositor with a single bank. This means that all deposited amounts with a bank will be summed up, in order to determine the amount of the guarantee. For example, in case a depositor holds a savings account with balance of BGN 180 000 and a current account with balance of BGN 40 000, this depositor will receive payment in the amount of BGN 196 000 only. [2] In case of joint deposits the limit of BGN 196 000 shall be applied to each depositor separately. Further information is available at the website of the Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund: www.dif.bg. [3] Guaranteed amounts' refund: The compulsory mechanism for guaranteeing deposits is the following: via the Bulgarian Deposit Insurance Fund (BDIF) 1606 Sofia, 27 Vladayska Str.
